INTRODUCTION

This lovely 20+ acre parcel of land is located in the Bozeman Pass Area between Bozeman and Livingston. It offers mountain living yet has convenient access from I-90 and is wrapped in dramatic mountain views! Power is on the west property boundary. Wildlife sightings are a regular occurrence including deer and elk. This property borders a year-round spring fed pond that livestock can drink from, but it also is a great attraction for frequent wildlife visitors! Mild covenants, but no problem with livestock. The property is already perimeter fenced. This is a breath-taking setting situated where the Gallatin Mountains meet the Bangtails and is a super location for the outdoor enthusiast with many recreational opportunities. For recreation, this area offers lots of hiking and rock climbing in the surrounding mountains, skiing at Bridger Bowl just 20 miles away or at Big Sky 65 miles to the southwest, or maybe fishing in the nearby Blue Ribbon Trout streams like the Yellowstone or Gallatin Rivers. Of course, there is also Yellowstone National Park just an hour to the south with its geysers, hot springs and wildlife. Livingston is 10 miles away with its fine restaurants and most of your shopping needs. Bozeman is 15 miles to the west where you will find major retail outlets and good medical services, as well as fine dining. The Bozeman Yellowstone airport is 25 miles to the west and is the busiest airport for all of Montana with over 20 departures per day.

LIVINGSTON LIFESTYLE

Livingston, Montana is a historic train town from the late 1880's that has attracted cowboys, ranchers, artists, and the rich and famous who are enamored by the scenery of this area of southwestern Montana. Livingston has been featured in movies like A River Runs Through It, The Horse Whisperer, and numerous TV series and commercials.

Historic Downtown Livingston has lively restaurants and shops, some of which have been around since the late 1800' s. Livingston is known for fly fishing, cross-country skiing, horseback riding, river rafting and numerous museums, art galleries and restaurants.

When it comes to outdoor recreation the town of Livingston is surrounded by four beautiful mountain ranges, and offers the Yellowstone River, Shields River, and numerous stream and spring creeks for an abundance of outdoor activities. Bridger Bowl, a home-grown, nonprofit community ski area operating since 1955 is located 29 miles from Livingston. Big Sky Resort is 68 miles away and is also frequently recognized as one of the world's best ski resorts, most affordable ski resort, and best ski resort for families. Yellowstone National Park(2.2 million acres) is located 50 miles south of Livingston.

With a population of about 7,000 people, Livingston has the amenities and services buyers expect for a town of this size. Livingston is less than 20 minutes from Bozeman. The Livingston School District includes Elementary Schools, a Middle School, and a High School. The median price of a single family home in Livingston is 18% lower priced than single family homes in Bozeman and appeals to buyers seeking a smaller town, yet still want to be close to the amenities of Bozeman.

PARK COUNTY

Park County, Montana's estimated population is 16,438 with a growth rate of 1.94% in the past year according to the most recent United States census data. Park County, Montana is the 11th largest county in Montana. Park County has a total area of 2,813 square miles (1.8 million acres or 7,290 km²), of which 2,803 square miles (7,260 km²) is land and 10.4 square miles (27 km²) (0.4%) is water.
