INTRODUCTION

Discover the potential of this remarkable commercial property on Main Street, Livingston, Montana. Previously an art gallery and studio, this fully renovated space offers a unique opportunity for a new business venture. The building's historic charm is beautifully accentuated by modern updates, creating a captivating blend of old and new. Skylights flood the interior with natural light, illuminating the exquisite features that define this property. The front portion, dating back to the 1890s, received significant upgrades in 2018, including new windows, white oak hardwood floors, skylights, and fresh drywall and paint. Original elements such as exposed brick and fir flooring in the kitchen and studio add character, while curated details like the oversized frosted glass door to the kitchen and industrial metal sliding doors provide an edgy touch. The custom kitchen boasts Wolf appliances, panel-ready fridge, and luxurious cabinetry, with reclaimed accents that enhance its unique appeal. Aside from the aesthetic changes, this building has great bones with upgraded electrical in 1999, all new plumbing in 2018, and a new PVC roof installed in 2016 with a 50-year warranty from Ace Roofing. The transformation includes a studio space in the back, complete with a full bath featuring a walk-in closet, laundry area, walk-in shower, and oversized vanity. Additionally, the property includes a 500+/- SF garage/shop space with 3-phase electrical, accessible via the alley, and a parking spot in front of the garage doors. Located in the heart of Downtown Livingston, this space is ready to inspire and accommodate your business dreams. Don't miss out on this incredible opportunity!
