INTRODUCTION

Property is now priced near the appraised value from April 2024. The seller has a replacement property located and is hoping to move soon, so this great price will only be around for a short time; the price will likely increase again if not under contract soon! Set on over 30 acres of pristine land, this 2-bedroom, 2.5-bathroom ranch-style home offers true Montana living, where wildlife roams freely, and breathtaking views surround you. Featuring 1,440+/- square feet of living space across the main floor and a partially finished basement also at 1,440+/- square feet, this home was custom-built in 2023, with vaulted ceilings, walk-in closets, en suite bathrooms and large windows that flood the house with natural light, showcasing the incredible views. The home boasts an open floor plan, well-equipped kitchen with butcher block countertops, and high-end finishes and building materials. Outside, the covered deck provides a perfect spot to take in unobstructed views of the Yellowstone River Valley as well as the Bridgers, Crazyes, and Absaroka mountain ranges. This property is a wildlife haven, set in an elk corridor, and is frequented by mule deer and other wildlife. With a premier location between Bozeman and Livingston, no HOA, and public land nearby, this idyllic setting is perfect for those seeking a private lifestyle. Year-round access is available via a privately maintained road; 4 wheel drive is recommended in the winter. A separated second build site is already prepped with water, septic, and power and is currently the home to 2 RVs that have been used as successful short-term rentals. Each build site has its own storage shed; one for toys and equipment, and the other set up with water and heat for the additional ease of washing linens for the short term rental business. This property is perfect for those seeking a remote retreat while maintaining access to modern comforts.

LIVINGSTON LIFESTYLE

Livingston, Montana is a historic train town from the late 1880's that has attracted cowboys, ranchers, artists, and the rich and famous who are enamored by the scenery of this area of southwestern Montana. Livingston has been featured in movies like A River Runs Through It, The Horse Whisperer, and numerous TV series and commercials.

Historic Downtown Livingston has lively restaurants and shops, some of which have been around since the late 1800' s. Livingston is known for fly fishing, cross-country skiing, horseback riding, river rafting and numerous museums, art galleries and restaurants.

When it comes to outdoor recreation the town of Livingston is surrounded by four beautiful mountain ranges, and offers the Yellowstone River, Shields River, and numerous stream and spring creeks for an abundance of outdoor activities. Bridger Bowl, a home-grown, nonprofit community ski area operating since 1955 is located 29 miles from Livingston. Big Sky Resort is 68 miles away and is also frequently recognized as one of the world's best ski resorts, most affordable ski resort, and best ski resort for families. Yellowstone National Park(2.2 million acres) is located 50 miles south of Livingston.

With a population of about 7,000 people, Livingston has the amenities and services buyers expect for a town of this size. Livingston is less than 20 minutes from Bozeman. The Livingston School District includes Elementary Schools, a Middle School, and a High School. The median price of a single family home in Livingston is 18% lower priced than single family homes in Bozeman and appeals to buyers seeking a smaller town, yet still want to be close to the amenities of Bozeman.

PARK COUNTY

Park County, Montana's estimated population is 16,438 with a growth rate of 1.94% in the past year according to the most recent United States census data. Park County, Montana is the 11th largest county in Montana. Park County has a total area of 2,813 square miles (1.8 million acres or 7,290 km<sup>2</sup>), of which 2,803 square miles (7,260 km<sup>2</sup>) is land and 10.4 square miles (27 km<sup>2</sup>) (0.4%) is water.
