INTRODUCTION

This 1930s gem on Livingstons east side combines classic charm with modern updates. Nestled on a spacious 13,500 sq ft lot at the end of South Q Street, this single-level, 2-bedroom, 1-bathroom home offers a cozy, functional layout complemented by a fireplace. Mature trees surround the setting and provide privacy, while the expansive yard invites outdoor activities, gardening, and relaxation. The property features an oversized, detached one-car garage, a workshop for projects or extra storage, and a root cellar. It also has off-street parking accessible via the alley, ideal for additional vehicles, campers, or even a boat. A remodel in 2020 enhanced both aesthetics and functionality. The kitchen and bathroom boast new cabinets and stainless steel appliances, and the main bedroom has new carpet while all wood floors are refinished. A new metal roof, spray foam insulation, covered decks, and a new sunroom round out the improvements, making this home a blend of historic charm and contemporary convenience.
