INTRODUCTION

Step into a piece of Montana history with this beautifully preserved and thoughtfully remodeled residence building in the vibrant heart of Livingston. Originally built in 1950, this completely repurposed historic grain elevator and mill blends timeless architectural details with modern upgrades, offering a rare investment opportunity in one of Montanas most charming and sought-after towns. Featuring 18 separate chic residences with unique and exquisite characteristics - century-old wood beams and columns, original wood ceilings, exposed copper piping, mountain peak views, and more - the building radiates character. Recent tasteful renovations brought a full structural re-haul, modernized electrical, plumbing, and finishes, all while preserving the original craftsmanship. 4 new "swank" units are what was the original ranch store, while the other 14 units are reconstructed masterpieces. Located just steps from historic Main Street, tenants enjoy on site parking, easy access to local cafes, art galleries, shops, and year-round outdoor adventures along the Yellowstone River and in nearby Yellowstone National Park. The historic building was designed with the ability for conversion into condominiums if desired, with individually metered units, offering exceptional potential for future development - an ideal opportunity for investors or developers seeking charm, character, and value. Whether youre an investor seeking an income-producing property or a preservation-minded buyer looking to own a slice of Montana heritage, this turn-key property is a rare gem that wont last long.

LIVINGSTON LIFESTYLE

Livingston, Montana is a historic train town from the late 1880's that has attracted cowboys, ranchers, artists, and the rich and famous who are enamored by the scenery of this area of southwestern Montana. Livingston has been featured in movies like A River Runs Through It, The Horse Whisperer, and numerous TV series and commercials.

Historic Downtown Livingston has lively restaurants and shops, some of which have been around since the late 1800' s. Livingston is known for fly fishing, cross-country skiing, horseback riding, river rafting and numerous museums, art galleries and restaurants.

When it comes to outdoor recreation the town of Livingston is surrounded by four beautiful mountain ranges, and offers the Yellowstone River, Shields River, and numerous stream and spring creeks for an abundance of outdoor activities. Bridger Bowl, a home-grown, nonprofit community ski area operating since 1955 is located 29 miles from Livingston. Big Sky Resort is 68 miles away and is also frequently recognized as one of the world's best ski resorts, most affordable ski resort, and best ski resort for families. Yellowstone National Park(2.2 million acres) is located 50 miles south of Livingston.

With a population of about 7,000 people, Livingston has the amenities and services buyers expect for a town of this size. Livingston is less than 20 minutes from Bozeman. The Livingston School District includes Elementary Schools, a Middle School, and a High School. The median price of a single family home in Livingston is 18% lower priced than single family homes in Bozeman and appeals to buyers seeking a smaller town, yet still want to be close to the amenities of Bozeman.
