INTRODUCTION

Peaceful and private, yet just 10 minutes from the artsy river town of Livingston, Montana, Nordic Escape by the Yellowstone sits regally on 4.2 deeded acres along a ridge, providing incredible views of the Yellowstone River, Mission Creek, Sheep Mountain, and the Absaroka, Gallatin, and Beartooth Mountain Ranges. The 1,536 square foot, four-bedroom, two-bathroom custom home boasts an open concept, energy efficiency, and extreme attention to detail around every corner. Just a half mile down the road, access the Yellowstone River for world-class trout fishing at Sheep Mountain FWP, where Lewis and Clark camped in 1806. The property also enjoys shared ownership and exclusive access to a private 89 acre island just south on the Yellowstone River. Built in 2016 and featured on the Discovery Channel's Building Off the Grid (home is now net metered to the grid), the home includes circle-sawn fir flooring throughout, large Glo high-efficiency tilt and turn European windows that bring the natural world inside, 10 inch thick super-insulated walls, and central A/C. The home's centerpiece is its Finnish soapstone Tulikivi 'Norva' high-efficiency thermal mass/radiant heat wood fireplace with a bake oven. The open kitchen includes Brazilian soapstone countertops, a farmhouse sink, stainless steel appliances, and cherry cabinets. Too many upgrades to mention. With a plethora of wildlife traveling through the property, easy access to recreational pursuits on and off the property, and magnificent views, it is difficult to imagine an investment that will provide more enjoyment.

LIVINGSTON LIFESTYLE

Livingston, Montana is a historic train town from the late 1880's that has attracted cowboys, ranchers, artists, and the rich and famous who are enamored by the scenery of this area of southwestern Montana. Livingston has been featured in movies like A River Runs Through It, The Horse Whisperer, and numerous TV series and commercials.

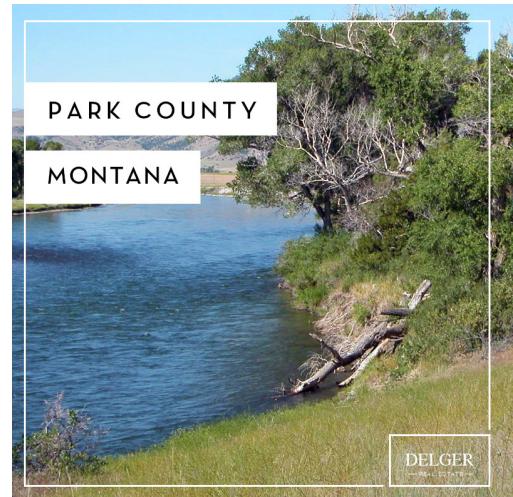

Historic Downtown Livingston has lively restaurants and shops, some of which have been around since the late 1800's. Livingston is known for fly fishing, cross-country skiing, horseback riding, river rafting and numerous museums, art galleries and restaurants.

When it comes to outdoor recreation the town of Livingston is surrounded by four beautiful mountain ranges, and offers the Yellowstone River, Shields River, and numerous stream and spring creeks for an abundance of outdoor activities. Bridger Bowl, a home-grown, nonprofit community ski area operating since 1955 is located 29 miles from Livingston. Big Sky Resort is 68 miles away and is also frequently recognized as one of the world's best ski resorts, most affordable ski resort, and best ski resort for families. Yellowstone National Park(2.2 million acres) is located 50 miles south of Livingston.

With a population of about 7,000 people, Livingston has the amenities and services buyers expect for a town of this size. Livingston is less than 20 minutes from Bozeman. The Livingston School District includes Elementary Schools, a Middle School, and a High School. The median price of a single family home in Livingston is 18% lower priced than single family homes in Bozeman and appeals to buyers seeking a smaller town, yet still want to be close to the amenities of Bozeman.

PARK COUNTY

Park County, Montana's estimated population is 16,438 with a growth rate of 1.94% in the past year according to the most recent United States census data. Park County, Montana is the 11th largest county in Montana. Park County has a total area of 2,813 square miles (1.8 million acres or 7,290 km²), of which 2,803 square miles (7,260 km²) is land and 10.4 square miles (27 km²) (0.4%) is water. The highest natural point in Montana, Granite Peak at 12,807 feet (3,904m), is located in Park County.

Paradise Valley is a major river valley of the Yellowstone River in southwestern Montana just north of Yellowstone National Park in the southern portion of Park County, Montana. The valley is flanked by the Absaroka Range on the east and the Gallatin Range on the west. The Yellowstone River, one of Montana's Blue Ribbon Trout Rivers, flows through Paradise Valley and is noted for world-class fly fishing in the river and nearby spring creeks such as DePuy Spring Creek. The valley hosts other natural wonders such as several natural hot springs, including Chico Hot Springs near Emigrant, Montana, La Duke Hot Springs near Gardiner, and Hunter's Hot Springs near Livingston. A small part of Yellowstone National Park is located in the extreme southern part of the county.

The northern end of Park County, Montana contains the Shields River Valley. The Shields River is a tributary of the Yellowstone River. It flows west, then south, between the Bridger Range to the west and the Crazy Mountains to the east, past Wilsall and Clyde Park. It joins the Yellowstone approximately 10 mi (16 km) northeast of Livingston, MT.
