INTRODUCTION

This beautiful bungalow is in a prime location and within walking distance to downtown, parks, groceries and Yellowstone River. This home is bright and sunny with its original charm, including the gorgeous hardwood floors, glass doors and knobs and fixtures, etc. There have been some updates and there's still some areas where you could add your own personal touches. There is an egress window in the mostly finished basement that could easily be turned into a bedroom (current bdrm is non-conforming). The house is stucco with a metal roof, the large kitchen has granite countertops and there is a formal dining room, which we don't see too often. The yard is private and the shared driveway expands into a personal parking space near the shared garage. This home is ready for a new owner after having been in the same family since 1951. The seller would like to leave most all furnishings at no additional cost.
