INTRODUCTION

Why jockey for a campsite when you could stake your own claim to the wilds of Montana? This land is 20.4 acres of off-grid paradise tucked in the mountains between Livingston (~10.5 miles) and Bozeman (~25 miles). At an elevation ranging from ~6,400 to nearly 6800 feet, this mountain escape features a mix of forest and open meadows, offering multiple potential build siteschoose one with views of the Crazy Mountains, Sheep Mountain, and Livingston, or tuck in for total seclusion surrounded by trees (or both!). The land is alive with wildlifeelk, moose, bear and deer frequent the area, while wildflowers blanket the forest floor in vibrant color. The land is perfect for an off-grid cabin or yurt, 4WD camper/RV setup, tent camping, or use as personal/creative retreat. Consider sustainably harvesting timber from the land to build your cabin. With lack of light pollution, the stars put on a heck of a show. Four-wheel drive is strongly recommended, and access is seasonal and varies depending on snow pack, though the adventurous can always get in by snowmobile. Out of respect for the private roads and neighbors, please schedule showings with a licensed agent. Owner financing is possible with a large down payment. Whether you're seeking tranquility, gritty adventure, or both, this property is a rare chance to own a piece of Montana's untamed beauty. As Mark Twain once said, Buy landtheyre not making it anymore.

LIVINGSTON LIFESTYLE

Livingston, Montana is a historic train town from the late 1880's that has attracted cowboys, ranchers, artists, and the rich and famous who are enamored by the scenery of this area of southwestern Montana. Livingston has been featured in movies like A River Runs Through It, The Horse Whisperer, and numerous TV series and commercials.

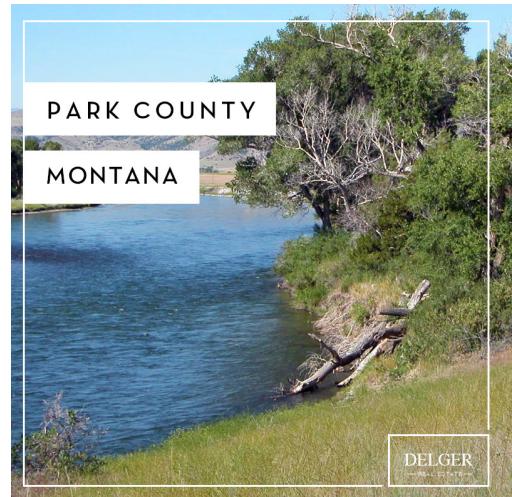

Historic Downtown Livingston has lively restaurants and shops, some of which have been around since the late 1800's. Livingston is known for fly fishing, cross-country skiing, horseback riding, river rafting and numerous museums, art galleries and restaurants.

When it comes to outdoor recreation the town of Livingston is surrounded by four beautiful mountain ranges, and offers the Yellowstone River, Shields River, and numerous stream and spring creeks for an abundance of outdoor activities. Bridger Bowl, a home-grown, nonprofit community ski area operating since 1955 is located 29 miles from Livingston. Big Sky Resort is 68 miles away and is also frequently recognized as one of the world's best ski resorts, most affordable ski resort, and best ski resort for families. Yellowstone National Park(2.2 million acres) is located 50 miles south of Livingston.

With a population of about 7,000 people, Livingston has the amenities and services buyers expect for a town of this size. Livingston is less than 20 minutes from Bozeman. The Livingston School District includes Elementary Schools, a Middle School, and a High School. The median price of a single family home in Livingston is 18% lower priced than single family homes in Bozeman and appeals to buyers seeking a smaller town, yet still want to be close to the amenities of Bozeman.
