INTRODUCTION

This property is located off of the high-trafficked North 19th Avenue corridor with lots of visibility. The annual average daily traffic count is 24,000 vehicles per day. The lots are currently zoned R-O (Residential Office District) and are being re-zoned to B-1 (Neighborhood Mixed Use). It is perfect for multifamily residential development, professional office, and smaller-scale retail, and the location is ideal given its proximity to the high school, public services, and transit. A 42-unit multifamily project has been designed for the site by Springer Group Architects. It would make for a great adorable or transitional housing project. In addition to the returns on the project itself, putting up affordable housing also creates bonus density opportunities on other development projects. This site was previously approved by the City of Bozeman as an affordable housing land donation site to obtain affordable housing bonus density. Therefore, we believe the site could be used by other developers as land donation property to obtain affordable housing bonus density on their respective projects.

GALLATIN COUNTY

Located in a sweeping valley in the heart of the Rocky Mountains, Gallatin County is the most populated and fastest growing county in scenic southwest Montana. Gallatin Valley has a rich history. Native Americans referred to this area as the “Valley of Flowers”. The name seems appropriate because of the great variety of wild flowers found on the mountainsides as well as in the valley. Gallatin Valley derives its name from the Gallatin River, one of the forks of the Missouri river that rises in Yellowstone Park. The Gallatin river, Jefferson river, and Madison river all merge at the town of Three Forks to form the Missouri River. Lewis and Clark named the rivers on their famous expedition to this part of the world in 1805.

There are approximately 1,682,048 acres (2,500 square miles) in Gallatin County including over 16,500 acres in surface water. Approximately 800,000 acres in Gallatin County are owned by the public and managed by several local and national agencies including the Bureau of Land Management, U.S. Forest Service, National Park Service, Montana Fish Wildlife & Parks, Montana Department of Transportation, Department of Natural Resources & Conservation and various local governments. The U.S. Forest Service is the largest land holder in Gallatin

County, currently managing over 665,000 acres. In addition to the Forest Service, various state departments manage approximately 61,000 acres. The Bureau of Land Management holds just over 9,000 acres and an additional 1,600 acres belongs to local governments. On the southern edge of Gallatin County is Yellowstone National Park. Yellowstone National Park is one of the world’s primary wildlife preserves and has the greatest concentration of geysers and hot springs in America. Yellowstone National Park is 2,219,789 acres in size (Larger than Rhode Island and Delaware combined). Over 97,600 acres of Yellowstone National Park is located within Gallatin County.
