INTRODUCTION

This charming 3-bedroom, 1-bath home in Livingston blends historic character with thoughtful updates. Built in 1930 and offering ample living space on a 7,000 square foot lot, it sits on a desirable street just blocks from the Yellowstone River and moments from downtown. Inside, hardwood floors and a bright bay window create a warm and inviting atmosphere. The spacious kitchen is perfect for gatherings, while the generous entry room provides a practical spot to shed boots and coats during Montana winters. Upstairs, a versatile flex room with tongue-and-groove walls and ceiling is filled with natural light from skylights, making it an ideal playroom, art studio, or music space. Outdoors, the private fenced yard is well-suited for pets and features established flower beds along with a custom-built covered patio. With removable doors that can be adjusted depending on the season and a built-in wooden bench, this space is perfect for both summer evenings and cozy fall afternoons. The garage has been used as a woodshop but can fit a single car, and there's also covered boat storage accessible from the alley. A home with space, character, and a truly convenient location—this is Livingston living at its best.

LIVINGSTON LIFESTYLE

Livingston, Montana is a historic train town from the late 1880's that has attracted cowboys, ranchers, artists, and the rich and famous who are enamored by the scenery of this area of southwestern Montana. Livingston has been featured in movies like A River Runs Through It, The Horse Whisperer, and numerous TV series and commercials.

Historic Downtown Livingston has lively restaurants and shops, some of which have been around since the late 1800' s. Livingston is known for fly fishing, cross-country skiing, horseback riding, river rafting and numerous museums, art galleries and restaurants.

When it comes to outdoor recreation the town of Livingston is surrounded by four beautiful mountain ranges, and offers the Yellowstone River, Shields River, and numerous stream and spring creeks for an abundance of outdoor activities. Bridger Bowl, a home-grown, nonprofit community ski area operating since 1955 is located 29 miles from Livingston. Big Sky Resort is 68 miles away and is also frequently recognized as one of the world's best ski resorts, most affordable ski resort, and best ski resort for families. Yellowstone National Park(2.2 million acres) is located 50 miles south of Livingston.

With a population of about 7,000 people, Livingston has the amenities and services buyers expect for a town of this size. Livingston is less than 20 minutes from Bozeman. The Livingston School District includes Elementary Schools, a Middle School, and a High School. The median price of a single family home in Livingston is 18% lower priced than single family homes in Bozeman and appeals to buyers seeking a smaller town, yet still want to be close to the amenities of Bozeman.

PARK COUNTY

Park County, Montana's estimated population is 16,438 with a growth rate of 1.94% in the past year according to the most recent United States census data. Park County, Montana is the 11th largest county in Montana. Park County has a total area of 2,813 square miles (1.8 million acres or 7,290 km²), of which 2,803 square miles (7,260 km²) is land and 10.4 square miles (27 km²) (0.4%) is water.
