INTRODUCTION

Set on three commercial lots totalling .75+/- acres just minutes from downtown Livingston, 1801 Sun Ave offers versatility and elbow room with a layout designed for living, working, and creating. This unique 3,456 sq ft structure combines a well-maintained main residence, an attached studio-style ADU with a private entrance, and a heated shop with a 12 electric door and vehicle lift (negotiable) ideal for car enthusiasts, woodworkers, or anyone needing space to build and store. Each living unit has its own garage, ensuring you won't have to take up shop space for vehicle storage. The main home includes two spacious bedrooms one on each end of the home with their own en suite bathrooms tall ceilings, abundant natural light, and thoughtful updates including new landscaping with privacy fencing and freshly sealcoated paved parking, with plenty of room for your vehicles, toys, or business traffic. The attached ADU features its own entrance, a bath, and a flexible studio layout with laminate and carpet flooring. Highly insulated with zip panel and concrete construction, this property is energy efficient and built to last. Outside, the yard is fenced and includes raised garden beds, and room to expand. The property borders additional lots (included in the sale) that offer increased privacy and development potential. The East side of the property is edged by Fleshman Creek, and mature apple trees line the western boundary. With unobstructed views of the Absaroka Mountain Range, and space for projects, guests, or business expansion, this is a rare opportunity in Livingston for those who value function, freedom, and flexibility. LIVINGSTON LIFESTYLE

Livingston, Montana is a historic train town from the late 1880's that has attracted cowboys, ranchers, artists, and the rich and famous who are enamored by the scenery of this area of southwestern Montana. Livingston has been featured in movies like A River Runs Through It, The Horse Whisperer, and numerous TV series and commercials.

Historic Downtown Livingston has lively restaurants and shops, some of which have been around since the late 1800' s. Livingston is known for fly fishing, cross-country skiing, horseback riding, river rafting and numerous museums, art galleries and restaurants.

When it comes to outdoor recreation the town of Livingston is surrounded by four beautiful mountain ranges, and offers the Yellowstone River, Shields River, and numerous stream and spring creeks for an abundance of outdoor activities. Bridger Bowl, a home-grown, nonprofit community ski area operating since 1955 is located 29 miles from Livingston. Big Sky Resort is 68 miles away and is also frequently recognized as one of the world's best ski resorts, most affordable ski resort, and best ski resort for families. Yellowstone National Park(2.2 million acres) is located 50 miles south of Livingston.

With a population of about 7,000 people, Livingston has the amenities and services buyers expect for a town of this size. Livingston is less than 20 minutes from Bozeman. The Livingston School District includes Elementary Schools, a Middle School, and a High School. The median price of a single family home in Livingston is 18% lower priced than single family homes in Bozeman and appeals to buyers seeking a smaller town, yet still want to be close to the amenities of Bozeman.

PARK COUNTY

Park County, Montana's estimated population is 16,438 with a growth rate of 1.94% in the past year according to the most recent United States census data. Park County, Montana is the 11th largest county in Montana. Park County has a total area of 2,813 square miles (1.8 million acres or 7,290 km²), of which 2,803 square miles (7,260 km²) is land and 10.4 square miles (27 km²) (0.4%) is water.
