INTRODUCTION

Welcome to Incognito Ranch, where elevated luxury pairs seamlessly with the rustic soul of a Montana guest ranch. This spectacular 4-bedroom lodge-style residence spans 8,524 SF, accompanied by a 1,172 SF attached art studio/guest apartment, all set on 29.99 acres of pure serenity overlooking the iconic Bridger Mountains. Recently refreshed throughout, the home feels both timeless and new. The grand, light-filled entry sets the tone, warm, inviting, and dramatic. The main-floor primary suite lives like a private retreat, featuring a spa-inspired bath with a copper soaking tub, an elegant custom closet, sitting area with wood-burning stone fireplace, covered balcony, and unobstructed mountain views. The main level continues with two additional bedrooms connected by a jack-and-jill bath, a stately Great Room with floor-to-ceiling windows, a beautifully appointed kitchen with walk-in pantry and temp-controlled wine room, and a dream laundry/mudroom with dual washers/dryers, lockers, and powder bath. The upper floor hosts another bedroom, full bath, and cozy library/TV room. The lower level offers a spacious family/game room with kitchenette, 3/4 bath with sauna, home gym, and generous bunk room opening to a screened porch, perfect for guests or large gatherings. Beyond the home itself, the garage spaces elevate the property to a new level. In addition to the 4-car heated garage, a 2,100 SF shop was added with an 800 SF art studio above. With 3,600 SF of heated garage space total, this is a paradise for car collectors and recreation enthusiasts: epoxy floors, LevRack system, auto lift, workshop with sink and laundry, and pull-through bays. The art studio, private yet connected, was designed for creativity, solitude, and inspiration. Step outside and Montana takes over. Bask in sweeping views of the Bangtail and Bridger ranges. Cast a line in your stocked pond from the private dock. Explore your own hiking, snowshoeing, and ATV trails. Horse lovers will appreciate two pastures, a 5+ stall barn with tack room and wash rack, hay barn, two turnout paddocks with year-round auto waterers, and a 100x200 outdoor arena with specialized footing. A nearby guest/caretaker cabin and separate guest bath enhance the ranch experience. Incognito Ranch is a rare blend of luxury, privacy, recreation, and breathtaking mountain beauty. A true sanctuary and an opportunity not to be missed.

GALLATIN COUNTY

Located in a sweeping valley in the heart of the Rocky Mountains, Gallatin County is the most populated and fastest growing county in scenic southwest Montana. Gallatin Valley has a rich history. Native Americans referred to this area as the “Valley of Flowers”. The name seems appropriate because of the great variety of wild flowers found on the mountainsides as well as in the valley. Gallatin Valley derives its name from the Gallatin River, one of the forks of the Missouri river that rises in Yellowstone Park. The Gallatin river, Jefferson river, and Madison river all merge at the town of Three Forks to form the Missouri River. Lewis and Clark named the rivers on their famous expedition to this part of the world in 1805.

There are approximately 1,682,048 acres(2,500 square miles) in Gallatin County including over 16,500 acres in surface water. Approximately 800,000 acres in Gallatin County are owned by the public and managed by several local and national agencies including the Bureau of Land Management, U.S. Forest Service, National Park Service, Montana Fish Wildlife & Parks, Montana Department of Transportation, Department of Natural Resources & Conservation and various local governments. The U.S. Forest Service is the largest land holder in Gallatin County, currently managing over 665,000 acres. In addition to the Forest Service, various state departments manage approximately 61,000 acres. The Bureau of Land Management holds just over 9,000 acres and an additional 1,600 acres belongs to local governments. On the southern edge of Gallatin County is Yellowstone National Park. Yellowstone National Park is one of the world's primary wildlife preserves and has the greatest concentration of geysers and hot springs in America. Yellowstone National Park is 2,219,789 acres in size(Larger than Rhode Island and Delaware combined). Over 97,600 acres of Yellowstone National Park is located within Gallatin County.
