INTRODUCTION

Modern, design-forward, and built to flex with real life, this 2022 home in Flanders Mill pairs a spacious main residence with a highly desirable, income-producing ADU. Inside, soaring 18-foot ceilings and a dramatic tile floor-to-ceiling fireplace anchor the open living space. The kitchen is equal parts sharp and functional with Belmont 1600 cabinetry, quartz countertops, and upgraded stainless appliances with a statement hood, flowing seamlessly into the dining and living areas. The main-level primary suite is a true retreat with a large tile shower featuring dual shower heads, dual vanities, and an oversized walk-in closet. Upstairs, a custom iron railing overlooks the great room and leads to three additional bedrooms, including a junior ensuite, plus two full baths and a versatile flex space ideal for work, play, or guests. Outside, enjoy a beautifully landscaped, irrigated, and fully fenced yard, plus a detached 3-car garage. The separate 1-bedroom, 1-bath ADU (approx. 637 sq ft) adds major flexibility and has been operating as a successful short-term rental generating several thousand dollars per month. Recent updates in the primary home include new upstairs carpet (Nov 2024), updated dining and bar lighting plus a living room fan (Jan 2025), custom floating shelves (July 2025), and fresh limewash in the primary suite with additional interior paint updates (Aug 2025). The ADU has also been refreshed with a wallpaper design (Feb 2025). Finished with engineered oak flooring in the primary home, sleek black fixtures, Andersen windows, and central A/C in both the home and ADU, this property is also close to community parks, trails, sidewalks, and a playground in one of Bozeman's most convenient neighborhoods.

GALLATIN COUNTY

Located in a sweeping valley in the heart of the Rocky Mountains, Gallatin County is the most populated and fastest growing county in scenic southwest Montana. Gallatin Valley has a rich history. Native Americans referred to this area as the "Valley of Flowers". The name seems appropriate because of the great variety of wild flowers found on the mountainsides as well as in the valley. Gallatin Valley derives its name from the Gallatin River, one of the forks of the Missouri river that rises in Yellowstone Park. The Gallatin river, Jefferson river, and Madison river all merge at the town of Three Forks to form the Missouri River. Lewis and Clark named the rivers on their famous expedition to this part of the world in 1805.

There are approximately 1,682,048 acres (2,500 square miles) in Gallatin County including over 16,500 acres in surface water. Approximately 800,000 acres in Gallatin County are owned by the public and managed by several local and national agencies including the Bureau of Land Management, U.S. Forest Service, National Park Service, Montana Fish Wildlife & Parks, Montana Department of Transportation, Department of Natural Resources & Conservation and various local governments. The U.S. Forest Service is the largest land holder in Gallatin

County, currently managing over 665,000 acres. In addition to the Forest Service, various state departments manage approximately 61,000 acres. The Bureau of Land Management holds just over 9,000 acres and an additional 1,600 acres belongs to local governments. On the southern edge of Gallatin County is Yellowstone National Park. Yellowstone National Park is one of the world's primary wildlife preserves and has the greatest concentration of geysers and hot springs in America. Yellowstone National Park is 2,219,789 acres in size (Larger than Rhode Island and Delaware combined). Over 97,600 acres of Yellowstone National Park is located within Gallatin County.
