INTRODUCTION

Step into timeless character with this solid 1922 home offering comfort, flexibility, and an unbeatable location in the heart of Livingston. Situated on a generous corner lot just two blocks from G Street Park, this property blends vintage charm with meaningful updates making it an excellent starter home or investment opportunity. The main level features a bright, open floor plan with easy flow between living and dining spaces. From the living room window and the front yard, enjoy beautiful views of Livingston Peak and the stunning Absaroka Range a daily reminder of why Montana living is so special. Upstairs you'll find two comfortable bedrooms and a full bathroom, offering privacy and separation from the main living areas. The basement adds valuable flexibility with a non-conforming bedroom, a bathroom, and a large open rec room that could serve as a second living area, hobby space, or potential additional sleeping area. The mechanical/pantry area provides abundant storage a rare and welcome bonus in homes of this era. This basement and potential separate access lend itself to the possibility of a separate living space that could be used as an up down duplex. Important system updates include a roof replacement in 2009, and a new on-demand boiler installed in 2021 providing efficiency and peace of mind for years to come. Outside, the spacious corner lot offers room to garden, play, or simply relax and take in the mountain views. The large garage/shop with a durable metal roof provides excellent space for projects, storage, or all your Montana gear. Enjoy convenient access to local schools, historic downtown Livingston, and the renowned Yellowstone River all just minutes away. A solid home with character, space, views, and thoughtful updates ready for its next chapter.

LIVINGSTON LIFESTYLE

Livingston, Montana is a historic train town from the late 1880's that has attracted cowboys, ranchers, artists, and the rich and famous who are enamored by the scenery of this area of southwestern Montana. Livingston has been featured in movies like A River Runs Through It, The Horse Whisperer, and numerous TV series and commercials.

Historic Downtown Livingston has lively restaurants and shops, some of which have been around since the late 1800' s. Livingston is known for fly fishing, cross-country skiing, horseback riding, river rafting and numerous museums, art galleries and restaurants.

When it comes to outdoor recreation the town of Livingston is surrounded by four beautiful mountain ranges, and offers the Yellowstone River, Shields River, and numerous stream and spring creeks for an abundance of outdoor activities. Bridger Bowl, a home-grown, nonprofit community ski area operating since 1955 is located 29 miles from Livingston. Big Sky Resort is 68 miles away and is also frequently recognized as one of the world's best ski resorts, most affordable ski resort, and best ski resort for families. Yellowstone National Park(2.2 million acres) is located 50 miles south of Livingston.

With a population of about 7,000 people, Livingston has the amenities and services buyers expect for a town of this size. Livingston is less than 20 minutes from Bozeman. The Livingston School District includes Elementary Schools, a Middle School, and a High School. The median price of a single family home in Livingston is 18% lower priced than single family homes in Bozeman and appeals to buyers seeking a smaller town, yet still want to be close to the amenities of Bozeman.

PARK COUNTY

Park County, Montana's estimated population is 16,438 with a growth rate of 1.94% in the past year according to the most recent United States census data. Park County, Montana is the 11th largest county in Montana. Park County has a total area of 2,813 square miles (1.8 million acres or 7,290 km²), of which 2,803 square miles (7,260 km²) is land and 10.4 square miles (27 km²) (0.4%) is water.
