INTRODUCTION

Welcome to your Montana dream homewhere refined design, thoughtful details, and everyday comfort come together seamlessly. This beautifully crafted, single-level residence offers the ease of main-floor living, highlighted by a rare fourth bedroom perfect for guests, a private office, a second living area or play space. Designed with both privacy and functionality in mind, the smart split floor plan places the spacious primary suite apart from the additional bedrooms, creating a peaceful sanctuary within the home. Step into the heart of the home and you'll immediately appreciate the inviting open-concept living area, where rustic wood ceiling paneling and a cozy gas fireplace with a custom reclaimed wood mantle add warmth, charm, and a touch of Montana character. The living space flows effortlessly into the dining area and well-appointed kitchen ideal for entertaining or simply enjoying quiet nights in. A generous walk-in pantry and ample counter space make both cooking and storage a breeze. The primary suite is a true retreat, featuring dual vanities, a luxurious soaking tub, a separate walk-in shower, and not one but two walk-in closets. The guest bathroom also offers dual vanities, providing added convenience and comfort for family and visitors alike. Stay cool through Montana's sunny summers with central air conditioning, and enjoy outdoor living in the fully fenced backyard perfect for relaxing, playing, or hosting gatherings. The covered back patio invites year-round grilling and unwinding, while the front porch offers stunning mountain views an ideal setting for morning coffee or evening sunsets. Nestled on a quiet street, this home delivers a sense of peaceful retreat while remaining just minutes from the charm, recreation, and amenities that make Livingston such a beloved place to call home.

LIVINGSTON LIFESTYLE

Livingston, Montana is a historic train town from the late 1880's that has attracted cowboys, ranchers, artists, and the rich and famous who are enamored by the scenery of this area of southwestern Montana. Livingston has been featured in movies like A River Runs Through It, The Horse Whisperer, and numerous TV series and commercials.

Historic Downtown Livingston has lively restaurants and shops, some of which have been around since the late 1800' s. Livingston is known for fly fishing, cross-country skiing, horseback riding, river rafting and numerous museums, art galleries and restaurants.

When it comes to outdoor recreation the town of Livingston is surrounded by four beautiful mountain ranges, and offers the Yellowstone River, Shields River, and numerous stream and spring creeks for an abundance of outdoor activities. Bridger Bowl, a home-grown, nonprofit community ski area operating since 1955 is located 29 miles from Livingston. Big Sky Resort is 68 miles away and is also frequently recognized as one of the world's best ski resorts, most affordable ski resort, and best ski resort for families. Yellowstone National Park(2.2 million acres) is located 50 miles south of Livingston.

With a population of about 7,000 people, Livingston has the amenities and services buyers expect for a town of this size. Livingston is less than 20 minutes from Bozeman. The Livingston School District includes Elementary Schools, a Middle School, and a High School. The median price of a single family home in Livingston is 18% lower priced than single family homes in Bozeman and appeals to buyers seeking a smaller town, yet still want to be close to the amenities of Bozeman.

PARK COUNTY

Park County, Montana's estimated population is 16,438 with a growth rate of 1.94% in the past year according to the most recent United States census data. Park County, Montana is the 11th largest county in Montana. Park County has a total area of 2,813 square miles (1.8 million acres or 7,290 km²), of which 2,803 square miles (7,260 km²) is land and 10.4 square miles (27 km²) (0.4%) is water. The highest natural point in Montana, Granite Peak at 12,807 feet (3,904m), is located in Park County.

Paradise Valley is a major river valley of the Yellowstone River in southwestern Montana just north of Yellowstone National Park in the southern portion of Park County, Montana. The valley is flanked by the Absaroka Range on the east and the Gallatin Range on the west. The Yellowstone River, one of Montana's Blue Ribbon Trout Rivers, flows through Paradise Valley and is noted for world-class fly fishing in the river and nearby spring creeks such as DePuy Spring Creek. The valley hosts other natural wonders such as several natural hot springs, including Chico Hot Springs near Emigrant, Montana, La Duke Hot Springs near Gardiner, and Hunter's Hot Springs near Livingston. A small part of Yellowstone National Park is located in the extreme southern part of the county.

The northern end of Park County, Montana contains the Shields River Valley. The Shields River is a tributary of the Yellowstone River. It flows west, then south, between the Bridger Range to the west and the Crazy Mountains to the east, past Wilsall and Clyde Park. It joins the Yellowstone approximately 10 mi (16 km) northeast of Livingston, MT.
