INTRODUCTION

Set on 22.7 private acres between Livingston and Bozeman, 182 Elk Ridge Road delivers enduring craftsmanship, protected privacy, and sweeping Bridger Mountain views. Conservation easements along the east and south boundaries preserve open space and welcome frequent visits from elk, deer, and moose creating a landscape that also supports exceptional wildlife viewing and premier archery elk hunting. Timbered terrain and varied topography provide both natural beauty and functional ground in a setting that feels expansive yet secluded. The 1,691 SF, 2-bedroom + office, 2-bathroom residence and integrated heated shop span approximately 3,565 SF total and were built on a true foundation wall with a clear focus on durability, comfort, and efficiency. The home features in-floor radiant heat, a heat pump system, and air conditioning, providing year-round climate control in Montana's changing seasons. Spray foam insulation (R-60) enhances energy performance, while 5/8-inch Level 5 drywall with an ultra-smooth finish creates a clean, refined interior. Pella windows frame the landscape, and solid fir doors, custom maple cabinetry, and quartzite countertops reflect quality materials throughout. Reclaimed Montana corral board siding and a built-in safe room balance rustic character with modern security. A 22kW Generac generator, 50-year architectural shingles, and standing seam metal roofing provide long-term peace of mind. The fully finished, heated shop completed to the same standard as the living space includes a kitchenette, oversized 12x14 and 12x8 doors, and a reinforced five-inch concrete slab engineered for a Class A vehicle. Ideal for RV storage, equipment, recreation, guest overflow, or extended living, the space offers flexibility without compromise. Designed for lock-and-leave simplicity or full-time living, the property also features a saltwater spa and a proposed future build site. Ideal for the outdoor enthusiast, the area offers easy access to hiking, skiing, fishing, hunting and year-round recreation while still providing a secure, low-maintenance home base. Approximately 13 miles to Livingston, 17 to Bozeman, and 21 to Bridger Bowl, it delivers convenient access to town while preserving the independence and quiet of mountain living.

LIVINGSTON LIFESTYLE

Livingston, Montana is a historic train town from the late 1880's that has attracted cowboys, ranchers, artists, and the rich and famous who are enamored by the scenery of this area of southwestern Montana. Livingston has been featured in movies like A River Runs Through It, The Horse Whisperer, and numerous TV series and commercials.

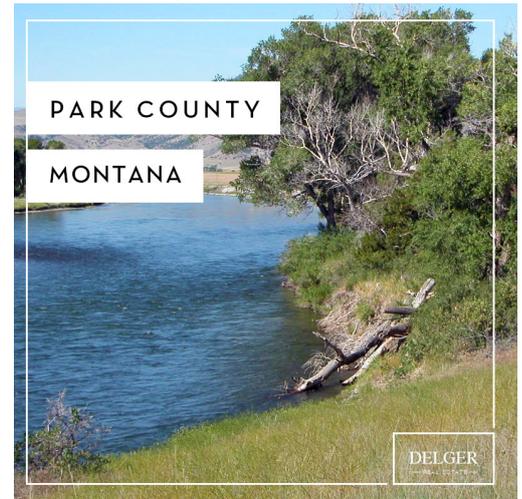

Historic Downtown Livingston has lively restaurants and shops, some of which have been around since the late 1800' s. Livingston is known for fly fishing, cross-country skiing, horseback riding, river rafting and numerous museums, art galleries and restaurants.

When it comes to outdoor recreation the town of Livingston is surrounded by four beautiful mountain ranges, and offers the Yellowstone River, Shields River, and numerous stream and spring creeks for an abundance of outdoor activities. Bridger Bowl, a home-grown, nonprofit community ski area operating since 1955 is located 29 miles from Livingston. Big Sky Resort is 68 miles away and is also frequently recognized as one of the world's best ski resorts, most affordable ski resort, and best ski resort for families. Yellowstone National Park(2.2 million acres) is located 50 miles south of Livingston.

With a population of about 7,000 people, Livingston has the amenities and services buyers expect for a town of this size. Livingston is less than 20 minutes from Bozeman. The Livingston School District includes Elementary Schools, a Middle School, and a High School. The median price of a single family home in Livingston is 18% lower priced than single family homes in Bozeman and appeals to buyers seeking a smaller town, yet still want to be close to the amenities of Bozeman.
