INTRODUCTION

Enjoy the best of in-town living with out-of-town views in this inviting three-bedroom, two-bathroom home that backs to City of Livingston owned green space. Take in the open views from the back porch perfect for morning coffee or summer dinners while enjoying raised garden beds and beautifully established perennial gardens. Inside, the home offers comfortable single-level living across 1,316 square feet. The primary bedroom features an ensuite bathroom and a walk-in closet, while the guest bedrooms are generously sized and filled with natural light. The guest bathroom includes a walk-in shower with glass doors. The family room feels warm and welcoming, with vaulted ceilings, and the kitchen is thoughtfully designed, featuring granite countertops that extend to the island. A prep sink next to the refrigerator makes meal preparation easy, and the pantry offers ample cabinetry for ingredients and small appliances. The attached two-car garage is conveniently accessed directly off the kitchen, simplifying daily routines. Recent updates include new lighting fixtures in the kitchen and dining area. The stone window sills throughout the home add a touch of character. Completing the charm of this property is a seasonal ditch along the back property line, enhancing the natural setting. Easy access to the dog-walking trail, a playground, and a baseball field enhances this well-maintained home. Contact your favorite real estate agent to schedule a showing and experience this lovely home for yourself.

LIVINGSTON LIFESTYLE

Livingston, Montana is a historic train town from the late 1880's that has attracted cowboys, ranchers, artists, and the rich and famous who are enamored by the scenery of this area of southwestern Montana. Livingston has been featured in movies like A River Runs Through It, The Horse Whisperer, and numerous TV series and commercials.

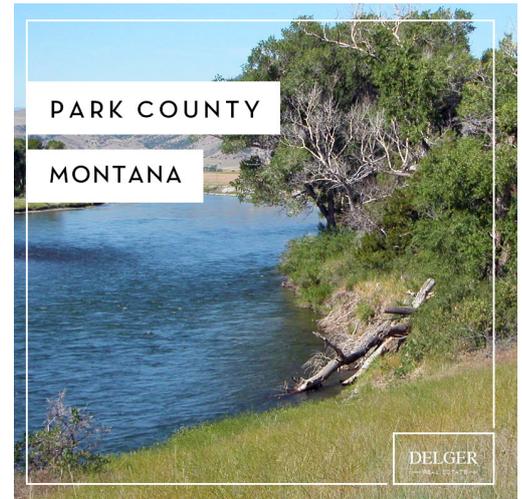

Historic Downtown Livingston has lively restaurants and shops, some of which have been around since the late 1800' s. Livingston is known for fly fishing, cross-country skiing, horseback riding, river rafting and numerous museums, art galleries and restaurants.

When it comes to outdoor recreation the town of Livingston is surrounded by four beautiful mountain ranges, and offers the Yellowstone River, Shields River, and numerous stream and spring creeks for an abundance of outdoor activities. Bridger Bowl, a home-grown, nonprofit community ski area operating since 1955 is located 29 miles from Livingston. Big Sky Resort is 68 miles away and is also frequently recognized as one of the world's best ski resorts, most affordable ski resort, and best ski resort for families. Yellowstone National Park(2.2 million acres) is located 50 miles south of Livingston.

With a population of about 7,000 people, Livingston has the amenities and services buyers expect for a town of this size. Livingston is less than 20 minutes from Bozeman. The Livingston School District includes Elementary Schools, a Middle School, and a High School. The median price of a single family home in Livingston is 18% lower priced than single family homes in Bozeman and appeals to buyers seeking a smaller town, yet still want to be close to the amenities of Bozeman.

PARK COUNTY

Park County, Montana's estimated population is 16,438 with a growth rate of 1.94% in the past year according to the most recent United States census data. Park County, Montana is the 11th largest county in Montana. Park County has a total area of 2,813 square miles (1.8 million acres or 7,290 km²), of which 2,803 square miles (7,260 km²) is land and 10.4 square miles (27 km²) (0.4%) is water. The highest natural point in Montana, Granite Peak at 12,807 feet (3,904m), is located in Park County.

Paradise Valley is a major river valley of the Yellowstone River in southwestern Montana just north of Yellowstone National Park in the southern portion of Park County, Montana. The valley is flanked by the Absaroka Range on the east and the Gallatin Range on the west. The Yellowstone River, one of Montana's Blue Ribbon Trout Rivers, flows through Paradise Valley and is noted for world-class fly fishing in the river and nearby spring creeks such as DePuy Spring Creek. The valley hosts other natural wonders such as several natural hot springs, including Chico Hot Springs near Emigrant, Montana, La Duke Hot Springs near Gardiner, and Hunter's Hot Springs near Livingston. A small part of Yellowstone National Park is located in the extreme southern part of the county.

The northern end of Park County, Montana contains the Shields River Valley. The Shields River is a tributary of the Yellowstone River. It flows west, then south, between the Bridger Range to the west and the Crazy Mountains to the east, past Wilsall and Clyde Park. It joins the Yellowstone approximately 10 mi (16 km) northeast of Livingston, MT.
