INTRODUCTION

Tucked on over an acre of beautifully wooded, lush landscape, this one-of-a-kind home offers the kind of serene, private setting that's getting harder and harder to find. Desirable southern exposure floods every corner with natural light, wood finishes, custom built-ins, and artistic details give this place a personality all its own. The office/bonus room is an entire wing above the garage and nothing short of spectacular, featuring a vaulted ceiling, stained glass accents, and treetop views from a wall of windows. Whether you're working from home or running a full operation, this space delivers. The main level flows effortlessly with an open kitchen, dining area, and living room ideal for gathering, while the custom artistic backsplash, kitchen island, and yes a fire pole keep things fun and unexpected. Step outside to an upper deck, a lower deck leading to a fenced yard, and plenty of room to soak in the peaceful surroundings. Recent updates include two new furnace systems, two new central air units, and a new water heater, so the big-ticket items are already handled. Skylights and stained glass keep the light and character going throughout. With RR/A zoning and no covenants the possibilities here are genuinely exciting, you can build a shop, operate a business, or explore the wide range of permitted uses this designation allows. Creativity and comfort don't often come packaged like this. Come see it for yourself.

GALLATIN COUNTY

Located in a sweeping valley in the heart of the Rocky Mountains, Gallatin County is the most populated and fastest growing county in scenic southwest Montana. Gallatin Valley has a rich history. Native americans referred to this area as the “Valley of Flowers”. The name seems appropriate because of the great variety of wild flowers found on the mountainsides as well as in the valley. Gallatin Valley derives its name from the Gallatin River, one of the forks of the Missouri river that rises in Yellowstone Park. The Gallatin river, Jefferson river, and Madison river all merge at the town of Three Forks to form the Missouri River. Lewis and Clark named the rivers on their famous expedition to this part of the world in 1805.

There are approximately 1,682,048 acres(2,500 square miles) in Gallatin County including over 16,500 acres in surface water. Approximately 800,000 acres in Gallatin County are owned by the public and managed by several local and national agencies including the Bureau of Land Management, U.S. Forest Service, National Park Service, Montana Fish Wildlife & Parks, Montana Department of Transportation, Department of Natural Resources & Conservation and various local governments. The U.S. Forest Service is the largest land holder in Gallatin

County, currently managing over 665,000 acres. In addition to the Forest Service, various state departments manage approximately 61,000 acres. The Bureau of Land Management holds just over 9,000 acres and an additional 1,600 acres belongs to local governments. On the southern edge of Gallatin County is Yellowstone National Park. Yellowstone National Park is one of the world’s primary wildlife preserves and has the greatest concentration of geysers and hot springs in America. Yellowstone National Park is 2,219,789 acres in size(Larger than Rhode Island and Delaware combined). Over 97,600 acres of Yellowstone National Park is located within Gallatin County.
