INTRODUCTION

This is a charming 4-bedroom, 2-bathroom home located on Ninth Street Island Drive, a beautiful and unique location surrounded by mature trees and spread across an area of 1.624 acres. The house is situated right in the heart of nature, attracting moose, deer, and a variety of songbirds, creating a private and peaceful woodland setting. The house's surrounding trees provide ample shade, keeping it cool during hot summer months, while the stone fireplace inside makes it cozy during the chilly winter nights. The house features an open floor plan, which gives it a spacious and airy feel, making it perfect for hosting gatherings with family and friends. The kitchen has been remodeled, boasting modern appliances and ample counter space for easy meal preparation. The whole-house humidifier ensures that the air stays comfortable all year round. You'll love the several window seats that offer a stunning view of the backyard, where you can relax and enjoy the tranquility of nature. The 24' x 24' attic space provides additional storage above the garage. The great room walls are decorated naturally with an American Clay wall finish, giving it a unique and rustic charm. Despite its rural feel, the property is conveniently located within walking distance of Livingston's historic downtown and Sacajawea Park, where you can enjoy shopping, dining, and outdoor activities. Owning this property is a rare opportunity to live on the Yellowstone River's only inhabited island, providing you with a unique and tranquil lifestyle that is hard to find anywhere else

LIVINGSTON LIFESTYLE

Livingston, Montana is a historic train town from the late 1880's that has attracted cowboys, ranchers, artists, and the rich and famous who are enamored by the scenery of this area of southwestern Montana. Livingston has been featured in movies like A River Runs Through It, The Horse Whisperer, and numerous TV series and commercials.

Historic Downtown Livingston has lively restaurants and shops, some of which have been around since the late 1800' s. Livingston is known for fly fishing, cross-country skiing, horseback riding, river rafting and numerous museums, art galleries and restaurants.

When it comes to outdoor recreation the town of Livingston is surrounded by four beautiful mountain ranges, and offers the Yellowstone River, Shields River, and numerous stream and spring creeks for an abundance of outdoor activities. Bridger Bowl, a home-grown, nonprofit community ski area operating since 1955 is located 29 miles from Livingston. Big Sky Resort is 68 miles away and is also frequently recognized as one of the world's best ski resorts, most affordable ski resort, and best ski resort for families. Yellowstone National Park(2.2 million acres) is located 50 miles south of Livingston.

With a population of about 7,000 people, Livingston has the amenities and services buyers expect for a town of this size. Livingston is less than 20 minutes from Bozeman. The Livingston School District includes Elementary Schools, a Middle School, and a High School. The median price of a single family home in Livingston is 18% lower priced than single family homes in Bozeman and appeals to buyers seeking a smaller town, yet still want to be close to the amenities of Bozeman.

PARK COUNTY

Park County, Montana's estimated population is 16,438 with a growth rate of 1.94% in the past year according to the most recent United States census data. Park County, Montana is the 11th largest county in Montana. Park County has a total area of 2,813 square miles (1.8 million acres or 7,290 km²), of which 2,803 square miles (7,260 km²) is land and 10.4 square miles (27 km²) (0.4%) is water. The highest natural point in Montana, Granite Peak at 12,807 feet (3,904m), is located in Park County.

Paradise Valley is a major river valley of the Yellowstone River in southwestern Montana just north of Yellowstone National Park in the southern portion of Park County, Montana. The valley is flanked by the Absaroka Range on the east and the Gallatin Range on the west. The Yellowstone River, one of Montana's Blue Ribbon Trout Rivers, flows through Paradise Valley and is noted for world-class fly fishing in the river and nearby spring creeks such as DePuy Spring Creek. The valley hosts other natural wonders such as several natural hot springs, including Chico Hot Springs near Emigrant, Montana, La Duke Hot Springs near Gardiner, and Hunter's Hot Springs near Livingston. A small part of Yellowstone National Park is located in the extreme southern part of the county.

The northern end of Park County, Montana contains the Shields River Valley. The Shields River is a tributary of the Yellowstone River. It flows west, then south, between the Bridger Range to the west and the Crazy Mountains to the east, past Wilsall and Clyde Park. It joins the Yellowstone approximately 10 mi (16 km) northeast of Livingston, MT.
