INTRODUCTION

Set on 20 acres with wide open views and unmatched privacy, this 4 bedroom, 4 bathroom home offers the space, flexibility, and setting that Montana living is all about. Located just 10 to 15 minutes from Livingston and 15 minutes to downtown Bozeman, the property gives you the perfect balance of convenience and seclusion. The home spans over 3,200 square feet with a highly versatile layout, including an upper level complete with its own kitchen, primary suite, and private deck, making it ideal for rental income, guest quarters, or a separate living space. The main level also offers the option for a primary suite depending on how you want to live in the home. The land itself is what truly sets this property apart, featuring a full-time spring-fed pond out front along with a seasonal pond and spring in the back, creating a rare and peaceful setting with consistent water sources. You will regularly see deer, moose, elk, turkey, and more right on the property, adding to the overall experience. The property also includes apple, pear, and plum trees and offers the perfect setting for year-round recreation, including snowshoeing, mountain biking, and cross-country skiing. With covered barns and plenty of usable ground, this property also offers strong potential for horses, homesteading, or simply having the space to enjoy everything Montana has to offer. This is a property that gives you options, space, and a lifestyle that is hard to find this close to both Bozeman and Livingston.

LIVINGSTON LIFESTYLE

Livingston, Montana is a historic train town from the late 1880's that has attracted cowboys, ranchers, artists, and the rich and famous who are enamored by the scenery of this area of southwestern Montana. Livingston has been featured in movies like A River Runs Through It, The Horse Whisperer, and numerous TV series and commercials.

Historic Downtown Livingston has lively restaurants and shops, some of which have been around since the late 1800' s. Livingston is known for fly fishing, cross-country skiing, horseback riding, river rafting and numerous museums, art galleries and restaurants.

When it comes to outdoor recreation the town of Livingston is surrounded by four beautiful mountain ranges, and offers the Yellowstone River, Shields River, and numerous stream and spring creeks for an abundance of outdoor activities. Bridger Bowl, a home-grown, nonprofit community ski area operating since 1955 is located 29 miles from Livingston. Big Sky Resort is 68 miles away and is also frequently recognized as one of the world's best ski resorts, most affordable ski resort, and best ski resort for families. Yellowstone National Park(2.2 million acres) is located 50 miles south of Livingston.

With a population of about 7,000 people, Livingston has the amenities and services buyers expect for a town of this size. Livingston is less than 20 minutes from Bozeman. The Livingston School District includes Elementary Schools, a Middle School, and a High School. The median price of a single family home in Livingston is 18% lower priced than single family homes in Bozeman and appeals to buyers seeking a smaller town, yet still want to be close to the amenities of Bozeman.

PARK COUNTY
