INTRODUCTION

Iconic Bozeman character with more charm and wood detail than one could imagine. Set in a highly convenient northside location, this 1920 home offers a rare combination of warmth, craftsmanship, and in-town practicality. For buyers who appreciate natural materials, exposed wood, vaulted volume, and a home that does not feel like every other property on the market, this one stands apart. The main level offers an inviting living room, dining area, kitchen, bedroom, bathroom, and covered porch (with wheel chair lift), creating a functional layout with everyday living spaces on one level. The living and dining areas are anchored by rich wood walls, dramatic ceiling detail, and a gas stove that adds to the homes cozy, distinctive feel. The kitchen provides practical workspace, pantry storage, and connection to the main living areas. Upstairs, the loft adds flexible bonus space for a guest area, office, reading nook, creative studio, or secondary living area. The basement includes additional room and laundry space, offering valuable storage and utility beyond the main living areas. Outside, the property includes a landscaped yard, perimeter fencing, underground sprinklers, shed, and mature trees. The location is equally compelling, with easy access to downtown Bozeman, Main Street, parks, sidewalks, and the incredible amenities of Bozemens Brewery District within a short distance. Enjoy nearby local breweries, dining, coffee, neighborhood services, and the energy of one of Bozemens most recognizable northside corridors without sacrificing the privacy and character of a standalone home. Buyer and Buyers Agent to verify all information, including square footage, zoning, covenants, utilities, and property details. (NON-CONFORMING 2 BEDROOM HOME. LOFT SPACE IS THROUGH MAIN LEVEL BEDROOM DOOR BUT COUNTED AS A SECOND BEDROOM.)

GALLATIN COUNTY

Located in a sweeping valley in the heart of the Rocky Mountains, Gallatin County is the most populated and fastest growing county in scenic southwest Montana. Gallatin Valley has a rich history. Native Americans referred to this area as the "Valley of Flowers". The name seems appropriate because of the great variety of wild flowers found on the mountainsides as well as in the valley. Gallatin Valley derives its name from the Gallatin River, one of the forks of the Missouri river that rises in Yellowstone Park. The Gallatin river, Jefferson river, and Madison river all merge at the town of Three Forks to form the Missouri River. Lewis and Clark named the rivers on their famous expedition to this part of the world in 1805.

There are approximately 1,682,048 acres (2,500 square miles) in Gallatin County including over 16,500 acres in surface water. Approximately 800,000 acres in Gallatin County are owned by the public and managed by several local and national agencies including the Bureau of Land Management, U.S. Forest Service, National Park Service, Montana Fish Wildlife & Parks, Montana Department of Transportation, Department of Natural Resources & Conservation and various local governments. The U.S. Forest Service is the largest land holder in Gallatin

County, currently managing over 665,000 acres. In addition to the Forest Service, various state departments manage approximately 61,000 acres. The Bureau of Land Management holds just over 9,000 acres and an additional 1,600 acres belongs to local governments. On the southern edge of Gallatin County is Yellowstone National Park. Yellowstone National Park is one of the world's primary wildlife preserves and has the greatest concentration of geysers and hot springs in America. Yellowstone National Park is 2,219,789 acres in size (larger than Rhode Island and Delaware combined). Over 97,600 acres of Yellowstone National Park is located within Gallatin County.
