INTRODUCTION

Efficiency and one level, this home is an easy drive home off of a main corridor yet on a cul-de-sac, a space designed for effortless daily flow and immediate connection to town. Inside, the entire three-bedroom, two-bathroom layout unfolds on a completely stair-free plane, your routine is entirely one level. Its a design that eliminates friction, whether you are hauling gear after a weekend in the mountains, bringing in groceries, or seeking a space that gracefully supports long-term accessibility. The only stairs here belong to the outside elements, leading up to the front porch and down from the back deck into the yard. The morning school drop-off, an early flight out of Bozeman, or a quick commute onto I-90 all happen in minutes without being affected by future road construction in downtown Belgrade. For those who haul outdoor gear, the cul de sac also grants a generous turning radius, making backing a truck or trailer into the garage exceptionally easy. The 0.21-acre lot features a fully fenced backyard, creating a secure, self-contained retreat that acts as a natural buffer from the road. Its a safe space for pets and play, capped off by an elevated larger, covered deck designed for taking in Montana mountain views, enjoy meals out of the sun or rain and enjoying the fire pit. Free from the constraints of an HOA, and complete with 2 storage sheds, mature shade trees, and an underground sprinkler system, this property trades neighborhood fluff for pure, poetic functionality. Not only do you have space to store equipment, toys and more but the sellers are leaving the fire pit, smoker and grill to get you started with the creation of an outdoor kitchen and living area.

GALLATIN COUNTY

Located in a sweeping valley in the heart of the Rocky Mountains, Gallatin County is the most populated and fastest growing county in scenic southwest Montana. Gallatin Valley has a rich history. Native americans referred to this area as the “Valley of Flowers”. The name seems appropriate because of the great variety of wild flowers found on the mountainsides as well as in the valley. Gallatin Valley derives its name from the Gallatin River, one of the forks of the Missouri river that rises in Yellowstone Park. The Gallatin river, Jefferson river, and Madison river all merge at the town of Three Forks to form the Missouri River. Lewis and Clark named the rivers on their famous expedition to this part of the world in 1805.

There are approximately 1,682,048 acres(2,500 square miles) in Gallatin County including over 16,500 acres in surface water. Approximately 800,000 acres in Gallatin County are owned by the public and managed by several local and national agencies including the Bureau of Land Management, U.S. Forest Service, National Park Service, Montana Fish Wildlife & Parks, Montana Department of Transportation, Department of Natural Resources & Conservation and various local governments. The U.S. Forest Service is the largest land holder in Gallatin

County, currently managing over 665,000 acres. In addition to the Forest Service, various state departments manage approximately 61,000 acres. The Bureau of Land Management holds just over 9,000 acres and an additional 1,600 acres belongs to local governments. On the southern edge of Gallatin County is Yellowstone National Park. Yellowstone National Park is one of the world’s primary wildlife preserves and has the greatest concentration of geysers and hot springs in America. Yellowstone National Park is 2,219,789 acres in size(Larger than Rhode Island and Delaware combined). Over 97,600 acres of Yellowstone National Park is located within Gallatin County.
